Cumming Farmers Market Makes Big Move this Fall

CUMMING, Ga. – A long-time City of Cumming tradition will begin a new chapter this fall at the City Center. The Cumming Farmers Market, established in 1978, for many years has offered a summer market in the Cumming Fairgrounds Parking Lot #3. After the final day of the summer market on Sept. 28, the market will be permanently relocating to the Cumming City Center, where it will now be open year-round.

“We’re so excited to be partnering with the City of Cumming to move the market to our new home at the City Center where we can now provide a year-round market to our community,” said Randy Gazaway, the market manager. Currently, the Cumming Farmers Market season runs from the first of June through the end of September on Wednesday and Saturday mornings from 6:30 to 11 a.m. (or until vendors sell out).

The City Center Farmers Market will pick up immediately where the Fairgrounds market leaves off, opening for the fall season on Saturday, Oct. 1. The market’s new schedule at the City Center will be:

- October to May – 8 a.m. to 11 a.m. Saturdays only
- June to September – 6:30 a.m. to 11 a.m. Saturdays and Wednesdays

“Our Farmers Market has been a part of the Cumming and Forsyth County community for more than four decades and we have a very loyal customer base, but our vendors are happy to hopefully reach even more people through the new year-round market at the City Center,” Gazaway said. “The Cumming Farmers Market is here to support our entire community with the freshest and tastiest products available, so we couldn’t be happier to now be able to provide those high-quality items all year long.”

The Cumming Farmers Market features products that are all grown or produced locally in Forsyth and nearby counties. Gazaway said many of the summer market’s vendors have signed on to continue with the market this fall. Among the vendors and some of their products coming to the City Center Market:

- Gazaway Farms – beef and pork cuts, sausage, eggs and produce
- Chunky Chipmonk – jams and jellies
- Annoor Tech, LLC. – raw honey infused with ginger

- Karen Robertson – succulents
- Hetty Stuff – fiber arts, knitted and crocheted items such as socks, hats, shawls, and baby items
- Momma’s Macrame – dream catchers, key chains, earrings, wall hangings, bracelets, water bottle holders, plant hangers, etc.
- Samples Farm – produce, eggs, breads and boiled peanuts
- Binge Worthy Treats – truffles, cookies, pastries, mini pies, etc.
- Drew Bees Apiary – raw honey, pollen, wax and logo clothing
- New Leaf Microgreens – assorted wild and cultivated mushrooms
- Campfire Mobile Coffee – coffee, lattes, teas and hot chocolate

“Our vendors can’t wait to bring their foods and other products to the City Center Farmers Market this fall,” Gazaway said. “We are overjoyed to see all our loyal customers, as well as lots of new faces, at the Cumming City Center!”
