Pieces & Peaches To Debut The First Seasonal Pop-Up Market at Cumming City Center

Taking place on October 22nd, the The Fall Pop-up market features local makers and businesses with live, family-friendly entertainment and events

CUMMING, GA (October 5, 2022) - Pieces & Peaches, a local mother-daughter owned fashion clothing boutique, will be hosting the first seasonal pop-up market at the brand new Cumming City Center. Taking place on Saturday, October 22nd from 10:00 am-6:00 pm, this family-friendly event features unique, local artisans and vendors, games and activities, as well as live entertainment. The event is free and open to the public.

The Market will kick off the Fall season featuring a plethora of curated vendors and local makers guaranteed to be a fun-filled and entertaining day as the brand new Cumming City Center welcomes the general public for one of the first major events at the facility. Aside from shopping, there is a full day of events planned for adults and kids ranging from live music to family karaoke and crafts, and even a pie eating contest. The broad range of vendor categories include adult and children's clothing & accessories, handmade jewelry and artwork, home decor, gift items and food vendors, to name a few.

"Since this is a business I have started with my teenage daughter, we are committed to making sure that we offer something for everyone at every age level, and most importantly, that we work with our local community to help promote business and artisans in our city. We want this market to be a place for people to get out, socialize and feel a connection with the vendors, other shoppers, and our community as a whole", says Christine Fowler, owner of Pieces and Peaches Boutique. "Additionally, by being highly selective in our vendor selection, we want to ensure we offer a variety of high quality, unique merchandise and services that appeal to all age groups."
